Peking Hotel
5, Bolshaya Sadovaya str., Moscow
www.hotelpeking.ru
The construction of the hotel building begins on the project of Dmitry Chechulin, the main architect of Moscow and the founder of the Stalin’s Empire style.

As a sign of friendship between China and the USSR, Moscow announces the name of the new hotel in downtown Moscow - "Peking".

The hotel welcomes its first guests. Among them are high-ranking persons, diplomats and celebrities such as Arkady Raikin, Vasily Stalin, Marina Vlady, Alisa Freindlich, Lolita Torres, Dean Reed, Marcel Marceau and the others.

Designed by Chinese architects and decorators, the first and the only one Chinese restaurant is opened in “Peking” hotel as the part of the Joint Soviet-Chinese enterprise "Beijing in Moscow".

The hotel building is recognized as a monument of history and culture.
“Peking” hotel is located in the very center of Moscow, in easy reach of the main places of interest, museums, parks and squares.
